Annexure to Ministry of Defence letter No. 70—D.G.A.F.M.S.—3478—D9, dated the 26th July 1949.

Subject:—SCHEME FOR THE TRAINING OF PROBATIONER NURSES IN SELECTED MILITARY HOSPITALS.

1. Number to be trained.

Forty Probationer Nurses will be recruited during 1949 for training in Military Hospitals, Delhi and Poona. Separate sanction will be obtained for the numbers to be trained in subsequent years.

The normal course of training will be of three years' duration.

2. Eligibility.—

Candidates for training should fulfil the following conditions:—

(a) Must be between the ages of 18 and 30 years and must be unmarried or widows without encumbrances.

(b) If educated in European Schools, must have passed the Senior Cambridge or if educated in an Indian School, must have passed the Matriculation examination.

(c) Must produce satisfactory reference of character.

(d) Must be (i) A national of the Dominion of India by birth or by domicile, or a subject of a State which has acceded to the Dominion of India.

(Note.—Non-Muslims of Pakistan who migrated to India on or before 30th September 1948 with the intention of permanently settling down in India will be treated as persons of Indian domicile).

(ii) Any other person in whose favour a declaration of eligibility may be issued by the Government of India. Application for the issue of a certificate of eligibility should be addressed to the Ministry of Home Affairs and sent along with the application of the course. Candidates in this category who are selected will be admitted to the course only after the certificate of eligibility has been issued in their favour.

Note.—Muslims from Pakistan will NOT be eligible.

(e) Must be of Medical Category 'A'. The Medical Examination will be carried out at the nearest Military Hospital. This examination will include X-ray Examination of the chest.

(f) Must execute an agreement to the effect that, no successful completion of training and obtaining State-Registration, will serve with the Armed Forces in the Indian Military Nursing Service for a minimum period of 5 years. Failure to comply with this requirement will render the Probationer liable to pay the entire cost of the training.

3. Accommodation and Allied Services.—

During training the candidates will be provided with free furnished accommodation, fuel and light, messing and mess servants in the Sisters' Mess.

4. Messing.—

The cost of messing and mess servants payable by Government will not exceed Rs. 3 per diem per trainee which will be claimed by the Matron of the Training Hospital from the Controller of Military Accounts concerned on a contingent bill which will be countersigned by the Officer Commanding Hospital.

Note.—The messing allowance admissible under this paragraph will not be claimed for periods of leave spent by a Probationer away from the Sisters' Mess.

5. Stipend.—

Probationers admitted for training will be granted a stipend at the following scale:—

During first year	Rs. 80	per mensem
During second year	Rs. 85	do
During third year	Rs. 40	do

Note 1.—A probationer who fails in the Junior Examination will not be eligible for a higher rate of stipend until she passes the examination.

Note 2.—A candidate who fails to pass either the Junior Examination or the Final Examination will be allowed to continue the training for a further period not exceeding six months. Whilst undergoing this extra training, the stipend will be continued, but no other probationers will be entertained for that period. Probationers who fail after three attempts will not be allowed to continue the training or to present themselves for further examinations.

6. Uniform Allowance.—

Probationers will be granted an initial uniform allowance of Rs. 100 on joining for training and thereafter Rs. 60 annually for maintenance of their uniform. They will have their linen washed free of charge by the Hospital Dhobi.

7. Leave.—

Probationers will be entitled to leave as under:—

(i) Earned leave.—At the rate of one eleventh of the period spent in training (excluding the period of leave).

(ii) Leave on M.C.—For a period not exceeding one month at a time subject to a maximum of three months in all during the entire period of training and subject to its being earned at one eleventh of the period spent on duty.

Probationers will draw pay equal to the stipend admissible for that year during the period of earned leave whereas during the period of leave on medical certificate it will be equal to half the amount of stipend. No leave will be admissible beyond the normal date of termination of the period of training.

8. Medical attendance.—

Probationers will be entitled to free medical treatment in Military Hospitals. When undergoing treatment in a Military Hospital as in-patients, no hospital stoppages will be recovered.

9. Travelling concessions.—

(a) Candidates for training when called for interview and/or medical examination will be granted one Class II fare for rail journey from their place of residence to the place of interview and back and mileage allowance at annas 6 per mile for journeys by road.

(b) Daily allowance will be admissible for halts at a flat rate of Rs. 6 for every 24 hours. For fraction of 24 hours daily allowance will be admissible as follows:—

Up to 6 hours	Nil
Exceeding 6 hours but not exceeding 12 hours	Half D.A.
Exceeding 12 hours	Full D.A.

Daily allowance or money in lieu of rations will not be admissible if the candidates are lodged and boarded at Government expense.

(c) Baggage will be restricted to the railway free allowance.

(d) The following travelling concessions will be admissible on being selected for and whilst under training:—

(i) One Class II fare for journey from place of residence to the place where required to report for training. Similarly one Class II fare on termination of training to the place of residence.

(ii) Free conveyance on temporary duty scale as for second grade individuals for journeys in connection with appearance at examinations held by Nursing Councils.

(iii) During the period of her contracted service with the Army, Probationer Nurse will be eligible for T.A./D.A. as for an individual of the second grade under Passage Regulations. When proceeding on earned leave she will be provided with free Class II railway warrant for the journey to and from her home in India without limitation as to distance. Road conveyance in conjunction with earned leave will be admissible to the extent laid down in the rules applicable to her case.

3. Other conditions.—

(i) A Probationer must conform to all rules laid down in the standing orders of the Hospital.

(ii) If at any time the work or the conduct of a Probationer is reported to be unsatisfactory, her training may be terminated at once.

(iii) No Probationer will at any time during the course of training be permitted to nurse a private case.

(iv) A Probationer who marries while under training will be discharged and may also be required to refund the entire cost of training.

I. No person shall, except with the general or special permission of the Reserve Bank:—

(a) take or send any security to any place outside India;

(b) transfer any security or create or transfer any interest in a security to or in favour of a person resident outside India;

(c) transfer any security from a register in British India to a register outside India or do any act which is calculated to secure, or forms part of a series of acts which together are calculated to secure, the substitution for any security which is either in, or registered in, British India, of any security which is either outside or registered outside India.

(d) issue, whether in British India, or elsewhere, any security which is registered or to be registered in British India to a person resident outside India.

2. Where the holder of a security is a nominee, neither he nor any person through whose agency the exercise of all or any of the holder's rights in respect of the security is controlled shall, except with the general or special permission of the Reserve Bank, do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of another person as the person from whom he directly receives instructions, unless both the persons previously instructing him and the person substituted for that person were, immediately before the substitution, resident in India.

3. The Reserve Bank may, for the purpose of securing that the provisions of this section are not evaded, require that the person transferring any security and the person to whom such security is transferred shall subscribe to a declaration that the transferee is not resident outside India.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, no person shall, except with the permission of the Reserve Bank:—

(a) enter any transfer of securities in any register or book in which securities are registered or inscribed if he has any ground for suspecting that the transfer involves any contravention of the provisions of this section; or

(b) enter in any such register or book, in respect of any security, whether in connection with the issue or transfer of the security or otherwise, an address outside India except by way of substitution for any such address in the same country or for the purpose of any transaction for which permission has been granted under this section with knowledge that it involves entry of the said address.

5. For the purposes of this section:—

(a) "holder" in relation to a bearer security means the person having physical custody of the security; provided that, where a bearer security is deposited with any person in a locked or sealed receptacle from which the person with whom it is deposited is not entitled to remove it without the authority of some other person that other person shall be deemed to be the holder of the security;

(b) "nominee" means a holder of any security (including a bearer security) or any coupon representing dividends or interest who, as respects the exercise of any rights in respect of the security or coupon, is not entitled to exercise those rights except in accordance with instructions given by some other person, and a person holding a security or coupon as a nominee shall be deemed to act as nominee for the person who is entitled to give instructions either directly or through the agency of one or more persons, as to the exercise by the holder of the security or coupon of any rights in respect thereof and is not, in so doing, himself under a duty to comply with instructions given by some other person.

(c) "security" also includes coupons or warrants representing dividends or interest, and life or endowment insurance policies.

"Security" means shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock and Government securities, as defined in the Indian Securities Act, 1920, deposit receipts in respect of deposits of securities, and units or sub-units of unit trusts, but does not include bills of exchange or promissory notes other than Government promissory notes.
